

194 Great Western Highway Blackheath NSW

11 10 6

LOCATION: Prominently displaying its charm, an easy walk to the Blue Mountains township of Blackheath, famous for beautiful white winters, superb rhododendron displays and magnificent views at Govetts Leap. A wide variety of bushwalks, amazing vistas and quaint shopping, make Blackheath considered to be one of the best villages across the Blue Mountains.

STYLE: Standing proudly on approximately 1,950 m2, surrounded by intricate gardens, is this incredible sprawling residence, formerly operating as the much loved and revered "George Boutique Hotel". Originally built in 1891, expressing all the charm and character of the late 1800's, rarely found in such superb condition.

LAYOUT: Multiple living spaces, including the large sunroom overlooking the gardens and brilliant sunsets.
