A 3D architectural rendering of a parking garage layout. The main area is a large rectangular bay with a grey floor, containing two cars parked side-by-side: a white sedan on the left and a dark grey sedan on the right. To the right of this main bay is a smaller, elevated area with a light grey floor, featuring a wooden table and four grey chairs. Further to the right is a service area with a white counter, a sink, and two windows. The walls are white, and the overall design is modern and clean.
